

Paper Format and Sample for the Proceedings

Paper Format

1. The paper should consist of the following parts in the right order:
Title → author's name → author's affiliations → abstract → key words →
introduction → main text → conclusion → references
2. All figures and tables must be included in-line with the text. Words in figures and tables must be printed in the required typeface and font size.
3. Table headers should be above the tables and centered. Figure captions should be below the figures and centered. Serial numbers of these figures, tables and formulas should be placed in order.
4. References must be more than ten entries and the information should be listed in strict conformity with the required sequence: [Serial number] Author's name. Title of the Book/Article [Literature type]. Publishing House/Journal Name, the year of publication: page numbers

Note: ① It needs to be indicated in brackets when the reference is in Chinese. ② As for literature types, [J] is for journal, [M] for monograph or book, [N] for newspaper, [D] for academic dissertation, [R] for report, [P] for patent documentation.

For example:

- [1] Aluminum. A Market Approach to Energy Conservation[J]. Journal of Consumer Affairs, 2002,16(3):300-317
- [2] Hooper, J. Nielsen, Andrew Whinston. Recycling as Altruistic Behavior: Normative and Behavioral Strategies to Expand Participation in a Community Recycling Programmer[J]. Environment and Behavior, 2002, (23):195-201
- [3] Xie Kefan, Cheng Guoqing. A Model of Receding Behavior, with Evidence from Danish Source Separation Programmers[M]. Wuhan: Press of Wuhan University of Technology, 2003:78-90 (In Chinese)

5. The references should be marked in the form of (author, year) in the text of the paper.
6. Sponsorship or support for the paper should be included in Acknowledgement which is placed before Reference, after Conclusion.
7. Each paper should be of at least 4 pages.
8. The email of each author should be provided and listed at the right place.
9. Abstract should be more than six lines, which introduces the research methods, opinions, conclusions and creative ideas, not just an introduction of background. The following sentence patterns can be taken as an example: "The paper employs.....(approach), presents....., implies....., set up....., draw the conclusion.....". At least 4 key words should be attached.
10. The first part of the main text must be "Introduction", which introduces overseas and domestic research status. The final part of the paper is "Conclusion", which summarizes the paper and proposes suggestions and expectations for the future research.
